tiby Associated Press.]

NEW ORLEANS, May 15.—If the Legislature passes a bill of acceptance, Louisland will have acquired a vertiable empire of the wild, stretching along the full of Mexico for a distance of seventy-five miles, and comprising an area of 500 square miles.

The bill of acceptance is only a formality, and the State Conservation Department already has begun to outline the work necessary to keep the tract safe for the creatures of the wild.

The property consists of Marsh Island, with 78,000 acres of land, purchased by Mrs. Russell Sage and given to the State as a game refuge, and a tract of 85,000 acres in Vermillion and Cameron Parishes on the coast given by the Rockefeller Foundation. Ad-

How a Clever Afternoon Sewing Club Made Their Spring Frocks

On Thursday afternoon five members of the neighborhood sewing club gathered together at the home of Mrs. B. to discuss new spring dresses. The meeting was the result of much thought. The topic for discussion was: "How to plan dressy and serviceable frocks that could be easily made at home without a big outlay of money."

Mrs. J. called the meeting to order: "First of everything in the choice of a dress comes the pattern," said she. "Have you ladies decided on the pattern service which is best adapted to home sewing?" "If this has. been thought of and decreed upon, I would like to know of your decision."

With one accord the ladies said, "Why, of course, we have chosen our pattern service—it is the Pictorial Review Pattern Service; first of all because the dresses are smartly simple; and, secondly, because Miller & Rhoads Store features them."

At the mention of Miller & Rhoads Store, every one became immediately interested. "Well, since it is the Pictorial Review Pattern Service, let's look through the Fashion Book and choose our dresses.

About this time, clever little Mrs. C. said, "All right, we will choose our patterns for the dresses, and since this is Thursday afternoon, let's get Miller & Rhoads' ad for their May Silk Sale; I'm sure we will find the material in Miller & Rhoads' advertisement."

The rustling of paper and the excited chatter as these dresses were chosen! The patterns selected were the very latest, and the materials selected were specially priced taffeta, crepe de chine, crepe shirting, silk foulard, and natural-colored pongee, pebblette silks, Georgettes, sport silks, etc., from the May Silk Sale. The cost of the dresses, allowing $1.00 for belting, hooks and eyes and shields, ranged from $8.00 to
